Splendours of Autumn - Canada & New England

October 2-9, 2009

Join Provident Travel when "it's autumn in the Northeast" and the famous fall colors are never far away - especially when you sail the region on the equally spectacular Queen Mary 2 (port of registry Southampton) for seven days round-trip from New York. Your first day is spent perhaps, with an inspiring walk along the meandering Cliff walk in Newport. Extraordinary Boston is your next stop, where history is on display at every turn. Quaint Bar Harbor is the quintessential Maine fishing village, and gateway to awe-inspiring Acadia National Park, where autumn foliage may be in full display if the timing is right. Saint John in New Brunswick is Canada's oldest settlement. While in Halifax you may want to head for the iconic lighthouse at Peggy's Cove, or take a stroll along the beautiful harbor.

Ports of Call

Newport, Rhode Island

Newport is home to spectacular scenery, awe-inspiring architecture, and welcoming hospitality. Famous for hosting the America's Cup from 1930-1983, the town is filled with natural seaside beauty. Visit museums, take Gilded Age mansion tours, biking tours or stroll in and out of the charming shops. Though yachting and the Gilded Age made Newport world-famous, the city is renowned for its delightful mix of Colonial Heritage, beautiful beaches, lively waterfront and cultural attractions.

Boston, Massachusetts

Discover in Boston the genteel streets lined with elegant brick townhouses, acres of welcoming parks and gardens and an abundance of American history! The contrasts are spectacular as skyscrapers mirror colonial steeples. If you are not taking a swan boat ride, visit Boston Common, Paul Revere's House, The Old North Church, the USS Constitution, Faneuil Market or walk the Freedom Trail.

Bar Harbor, Maine

Surrounded by Acadia National Park, Bar Harbor has as many facets as a diamond, each offering a wealth of experience. Few realize it but the town encompasses everything from the Trenton Bridge to Otter Creek. The magic of harbor allures its visitors with romance, adventure, its rock-bound coastline and its soaring granite cliffs. Spend time in Bar Harbor lobster fishing and seal watching, biking, taking a walking tour of downtown or kayaking. The options for tours are endless; lighthouse tours, Acadia National Park tours, nature tours, boating tours and much more!

Saint John, New Brunswick

Set alongside New Brunswick's Bay of Fundy, Saint John's is the oldest city in Canada. There are numerous ways to enjoy this beautiful city surrounded by three stunning beaches and many lakes. Only in Saint John can you witness firsthand the highest tides in the world. Experience the power of the Reverses Falls. Take a day trip the Kennebecasis Marshlands for a wildlife and flora tour or Pontoon down the Kennebecasis River. The colorful streets provide quality shopping and history. Boating, fishing and hiking are abundant!

Halifax, Nova Scotia

Explore this charming seaside town with its sun-drenched beaches, sparkling coves and miles of rugged shoreline guarded by graceful lighthouses. Don't miss the opportunity to take a nature tour or take a waterfront walk. Hiking, biking, horseback riding, sailing and fishing are also available.
