PORTS OF CALL

Vancouver, British Columbia

Vancouver is the Canadian Jewel of Puget Sound! From the cobblestone streets of the Gastown District to Little Italy and China Town, it offers a truly international experience.

Nanaimo, British Columbia

In Vancouver Islands second largest city you can stroll along a newly redeveloped waterfront with walkways, boardwalks, gardens and floating restaurants. Take the Cowichan Valley Grand Wine Tour where the land of the sun provides an ideal climate for a variety of grapes. On this tour you will taste wine with an Italian influence and wine with a west coast style influence.

Victoria, British Columbia

The capital of British Columbia is located on Canada's largest island, Vancouver Island. This seaside enclave and one-time British colony has retained much of its colonial splendor. A visit to Vancouver Island would not be complete without a trip to Butchart Gardens, a 50-acre gracious showplace of gardens including a rose garden, Japanese garden, sunken garden, Italian Garden, fountains, a show greenhouse and wonderful gift shop. A wine and chocolate tasting can be added to the Butchart Gardens tour to make it a day of filling your senses.

Seattle, Washington

Set against Puget Sound and the Olympic Mountains, visitors to the Emerald City will find a fusion of American, Asian, and Native American cultures. Glimpse the future of Aviation with a visit to the Future of Flight Aviation Center and Boeing Factory. Enjoy a tour of Seattle's highlights before soaring to the top of the Space Needle.

Astoria, Oregon

Hundreds of Victorian homes line the steep, wooded hillsides of America's oldest settlement west of the Rockies. Stroll through the revitalized 1920s-era downtown of this picturesque community set at the mouth of the Columbia River. Take an opportunity to increase your culinary knowledge at the Seafood Cooking School and Wine Tasting Class. Journey to the Mt. St. Helens National Volcanic Monument in the state of Washington.

San Francisco, California

One of the world's most exciting and eclectic cities, visitors have a wealth of possibilities from tasting clam chowder on Fisherman's Wharf, driving down Lombard Street, taking a ferry to Alcatraz Island or riding a cable car on Powell Street. Approximately one hour past the Golden Gate Bridge you will find Napa Valley where you can taste some of the finest wine made in our country.

Monterey, California

Just 350 miles north of Los Angeles, Monterey has deep connections to the fishing industry and was the inspiration for the John Steinbeck novel, Cannery Row. Don't miss the 17 Mile Drive featuring spectacular coastline scenery and a visit Carmel. Enjoy old world Spanish charm with a visit to the Monterey Mission and complete the visit with wine tasting at a local winery.

Catalina Island, California

It won't take long to realize that Catalina Island is pure paradise. Art deco architecture, quaint boutiques and eclectic dining are just waiting to be discovered. A guided tour of Catalina's rugged interior includes the American Bald Eagle Habitat and a tour of Cape Canyon offering views of Catalina's outback. Paddle along in a kayak to explore Catalina's coastline.

Amenities on the "Millennium": Internet Café, Luxurious AquaSpa, Las Vegas Style Shows, Casinos, World Class Restaurants, Riviera Pool, The Conservatory, Library, Martini Bar, Cova Café, Card Room, Persian Garden, Fitness Center, Cosmos Observation Deck
