

Christmas in San Antonio

December 3-7, 2009

Spend the most enchanting of holidays in the beautiful river city of San Antonio, Texas. Board your riverboat cruise and meander along the River walk. Feel the magic as you are surrounded by bright twinkling Christmas lights and Christmas decorations at every turn. Tour historic sites such as Market Square, Mission San Jose and of course the Alamo! Step into the life of a "Texas Cowboy" as you feed the longhorn, practice your hand at roping and take a hayride. Cowboys can build up a hearty appetite that will be satisfied with a Texas-style lunch. A day in San Antonio's Hill Country will provide a visit to LBJ's Texas White House, Becker Vineyards and Luckenbach, made famous by Waylon Jennings and Willie Nelson.

Daily Itinerary

MEALS: (B) Breakfast (L) Lunch (D) Dinner

Thursday, December 3

Welcome to San Antonio, a river city full of cultural heritage. You are cordially invited to an evening cocktail reception on your first evening in San Antonio. Rest up for a big day ahead.

Friday, December 4 - (B, D)

Begin the day with a morning city tour featuring historic sites such as Market Square, Mission San Jose and of course the Alamo - the most famous landmark in Texas. We will learn about Davey Crockett's attempt to hold off the Mexican Army. In the afternoon there will be time to explore one of San Antonio's jewels - the "River Walk", stretching approximately 2-1/2 miles with sidewalk cafés, boutiques and restaurants. This evening, enjoy a cruise along the festively illuminated River Walk before dinner at a local restaurant.

Saturday, December 5 - (B, L)

"Git along little cowboy" and you are off to Bandera, the "Cowboy Capital of the World" for a visit to Silver Spur Guest Ranch. Learn about life on the ranch, take a hayride to feed the longhorn and enjoy a trick roping performance, and perhaps even try your hand at roping! For lunch, enjoy a hardy lunch of Texas-style brisket, BBQ chicken and beef, chicken fried steak and all the fixins'.

Sunday, December 6 (B, D)

Journey to Stonewall, Texas in the heart of the San Antonio's Hill Country. Learn about the life and legacy of our 36th president, Lyndon B. Johnson. Tour the Texas White House also known as the LBJ Ranch, visit Becker Vineyards for a tour and tasting of Texas' vintages. Last stop is Luckenbach, made famous by Wayon Jennings and Willie Nelson. Time will be given to explore this Western town and its 1849 General Store.

Monday, December 7 (B)

Your luggage is brimming with all of your Christmas treasure and presents for family and friends. Your memories of Christmas in San Antonio will be "Big" like everything in Texas. Board your return flights home to Cincinnati.
